Dear Ken,

Llanidloes Community Council have brought to my attention their concerns regarding the number of safe passing places on the A470/A489 Llanidloes to Newtown road. There is concern that these factors may cause some drivers to take reckless action in overtaking on unsafe areas of the highway.

I understand that a review of the passing places on the trunk roads of Mid Wales has been proposed. I am keen to learn of what progress has been made with that review and whether the funding will be available to support implementation of any recommendations that make our roads safer for drivers.

I would welcome your response and views on the above so that I may communicate these with the community members that remain concerned regarding the difficulties outlined.

Yours sincerely

Dafydd Llywelyn
