[Welsh Government Official],

That's absolutely fine. Very happy to speak to [Natural Resources Wales Official]. Please be reassured that we are very clear that the Welsh Government is the client and we are working to your brief.

Hi [Gatenbysanderson Official],

We've had some further discussions on this – our [Welsh Government Official] who is Chair of the panel has agreed for [Natural Resources Wales Official] to speak with you outside of the discussions with the other panel members next week. We are happy for [Natural Resources Wales Official] to give further background on the skills and behaviours needed for the board.

I hope you don't mind, but I have passed your contact details onto [Natural Resources Wales Official] team, they will be in touch to arrange a call this week.

Thanks a lot,

[Welsh Government Official]

Hi [Gatenbysanderson Official],

That query was also raised with us today.

We think it is best to avoid any perceived conflict with [Natural Resources Wales Official] role on the panel, by seeking [Natural Resources Wales Official] views separately to the meetings/discussions with the other panel members on who we are looking to recruit. [Natural Resources Wales Official] will have the opportunity to give [Natural Resources Wales Official] views during the meeting with the other panel members.

Therefore, I think it's best you get the background from the CEO as planned.

Thanks [Welsh Government Official]. Just a quick question regarding [Natural Resources Wales Official]. My colleague is actually doing some work for [Natural Resources Wales Official] in [Name removed] role. Apparently, in the course of speaking to [Natural Resources Wales Official] today, [Natural Resources Wales Official] mentioned that he thought it was odd that we had not asked to speak to [Natural Resources Wales Official]. Are you happy if I make contact with [Natural Resources Wales Official]? I know we have a session already set up with the [Natural Resources Wales Official] but in the interests of building relationships, it might make for smooth running if I reach out to [Natural Resources Wales Official] too.

And just to confirm, we are completely on board with these being Welsh Government appointments to a Welsh Government brief – but hearing about the organisation from the [Natural Resources Wales Official] will be useful context.

With thanks

[Gatenbysanderson Official]
