Thanks Adrian, that's great – I will keep you updated with how preparation is going.

Just by way of a follow up to the last event, please find attached for information a draft write up for publicity purposes - Burges Salmon and Barton Willmore are yet to comment on it, but I intend to share this online in due course, pending any changes from them. Just wanted to share for your information – do let me know if you have any queries/comment on it. Feel free to also use it if you wish – BS and BW are likely to take this base wording and reshape slightly to give their quotes prominence for sharing on their own platforms.

All the best

Hello Will,

Yes I had a good weekend thanks. I hope you did too.

Ceri Doyle, one of our commissioners and Chief Exec of Newport City Homes hopes to attend the round table. She may have something else on. If she is unable to attend the John Lloyd Jones, our Chair, will take the seat. I don't plan to attend this one.

I hope the arrangements are coming together well.

Best

Adrian

Hi Adrian,

Hope you had a pleasant B/H weekend. I was wondering whether you had had any luck with discussing attendance at the Housing roundtable event with any of the Commissioners and whether you'd like me to provide any further information/invite directly?

Also, we're planning out seating arrangement/numbers and so wondered whether you wanted to come along again – if so we will make sure to reserve you a seat.

All the best

Subject: Round Table Event

Hi Adrian,

Nice to meet you yesterday – hope you found it useful. As discussed briefly, the next two events are due to follow the same format, but focused on different topics (with different invited contributors).

The dates of these are:

- 12th June – Housing
- 3rd July – Transport

Eluned has said she is happy to attend the Transport event on 3rd July, but suggested there may be another Commissioner who'd prefer to do the housing one.

The invitation draft is below for information. We are due to start issuing invitations at the end of the week – I will share the invite list with you once we've bottomed it out!

Best
