

4 July 2022

Dear

ATISN 16444 – End of Life Care

Thank you for your request to the Welsh Government for information under the Freedom of Information Act (2000) (FOIA) received on 30 June 2022 which relates to our response to your previous request ATISN 16439 (30 June). You have requested:

- What other 'major health conditions areas' do the three members of staff engage in?

Response

Civil servants routinely occupy posts that are responsible for a number of policy areas. The Major Health Conditions posts referred to in the previous reply, also cover areas such as liver disease, stroke, neurological conditions, falls and frailty, long covid, bereavement, musculoskeletal/arthritis and chronic pain.

Next Steps

The request you sent me contains personal information about you - for example, your name and address. The Welsh Government will be the data processor for this information and, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation, it will be processed in order to fulfil our public task and meet our legal obligations under the Act to provide you with a response.

We will only use this personal information to deal with your request and any matters which arise as a result of it. We will keep your personal information and all other information relating to your request for three years from the date on which your request is finally closed. Your personal information will then be disposed of securely.

Under data protection legislation, you have the right:

- to be informed of the personal data we hold about you and to access it
- to require us to rectify inaccuracies in that data
- to (in certain circumstances) object to or restrict processing
- for (in certain circumstances) your data to be 'erased'
- to (in certain circumstances) data portability
- to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) who is our independent regulator for data protection

For further information about the information which the Welsh Government holds and its use, or if you wish to exercise your rights under the GDPR, please see contact details below:
