Dear

Request for Information – ATISN 16882

Thank you for your request for information which I received on 20 November.

Your request

You asked for the following information:

Any information on the Octel Bromine Plant's Whelen sirens in Amlwch, Anglesey. I heard that the site is being demolished, and I would like to know what will be happening or what has happened to the sirens.

Our response

I can confirm that the Welsh Government does not hold any information captured by your request. You may wish to contact HM Land Registry to definitively establish ownership of the former Octel Site in order to direct your enquiry to the current owner.

Alternatively, there is a third-party website charting the history of the site which is easily found using an internet search engine. It has a "contact us" form which may be helpful in establishing the status of the Whelen sirens, though please note that the Welsh Government cannot verify or guarantee information provided by third parties. octelamlwch.co.uk/
