Hi REDACTED,

REDACTED has forwarded me your email. Are you free for a chat later today, say at 13:30? If you are I'll send a Teams meeting invite and ask REDACTED and REDACTED to join us too.

Thanks

Good Morning REDACTED

I hope you are well.

I am sure you are aware of the independent testing the Marine Management Organisation have been conducting over the past few months. The results of those tests are now known and an update published yesterday:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/news/mmo-announces-the-results-of-i-vms-device-testing>.

Following this announcement Wales have also published an update:

<https://www.gov.wales/wales-inshore-vessel-monitoring-systems-ivms-fishing-vessels-under-12m>

I am happy to answer any questions should they arise.

Regards
