Welsh Government

28 September 2023

Dear ,

Request for Information - ATISN 18961

Thank you for your request for information which I received on 12 September.

Your request

You have asked for the following information regarding potholes:

1. The total amount spent by local authorities in compensation to motorists as a result of potholes in the last three years
2. A breakdown by each year and by local authority

Our Response

I can confirm that the Welsh Government does not hold the information as you have requested. We only hold the information in relation to the claims made against Welsh Ministers for the motorway and trunk roads across Wales. I would suggest that you either contact the relevant Local Authority directly for this information or please confirm if you'd like to request the information we do hold, as above.

Next steps

If you are dissatisfied with the Welsh Government's handling of your request, you can ask for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this response. Requests for an internal review should be addressed to the Welsh Government's Freedom of Information Officer at:

However, please note that the Commissioner will not normally investigate a complaint until it has been through our own internal review process.

The request you sent me contains personal information about you - for example, your name. The Welsh Government will be the data processor for this information and, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation, it will be processed in order to fulfil our public task and meet our legal obligations under the Act to provide you with a response. We will only use this personal information to deal with your request and any matters which arise as a result of it. We will keep your personal information and all other information relating to your request for three years from the date on which your request is finally closed. Your personal information will then be disposed of securely.

Under data protection legislation, you have the right:

- to be informed of the personal data we hold about you and to access it
- to require us to rectify inaccuracies in that data
- to (in certain circumstances) object to or restrict processing
- for (in certain circumstances) your data to be 'erased'
- to (in certain circumstances) data portability
- to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) who is our independent regulator for data protection
