Dear  and .

Subject: Follow-up on Impact Assessment for the reformed specialty doctor contract and grade pay award (2022/2023).

Over a period of 10 months<sup>1</sup>, we have written to you on several occasions outlining our concerns regarding a potential lack of due regard given to the general equality duty within the published impact assessment for the reformed specialty doctor contract pay award (2022/2023).

Our letter<sup>2</sup>, dated the 3rd of April, sets out these concerns in full.

Included below is a chronology which sets out our requests for clarification from you on this matter.

As you know we have raised wider concerns about potential non-compliance with the PSED with the Welsh Government relating to the lack of completed and published EIAs.

As part of our ongoing monitoring, we will periodically update you and the Permanent Secretary on areas of continuing concern.

This is currently listed as an area of ongoing concern.

Please respond with the required information by 13th November (14 working days).
