Dear Rebecca,

Welsh Economic Growth Advisory Group

I know that we have shared ambitions to ensure that Wales is at the forefront of the UK Government's number one mission to kickstart economic growth, making best use of our sector strengths such as creative industries, life sciences and advanced manufacturing, as well as unlocking new opportunities like Floating Offshore Wind.

As we have previously discussed, I am setting up a group to utilise the breadth and depth of experience of organisations across Wales as we develop our work to drive economic growth, shape our industrial strategy, and make Britain a clean energy superpower. The group is intended to identify solutions to the challenges we face and work together to seize the opportunities to deliver greater prosperity for Wales and Britain. I would very much welcome your, or your senior officials', involvement in the group.

The first meeting will be held in Ty William Morgan (Cardiff) on Monday 2 December in the morning. I hope either you, or one of your officials, can join us.

I look forward to working with you to boost growth in Wales and maximise its strengths to improve the economic outlook.

Yours sincerely,

Rt Hon Jo Stevens MP
Secretary of State for Wales
Ysgrifennydd Gwladol Cymru
