Dear [REDACTED]

My apologies – unbeknown to me the [REDACTED] before Christmas, which explained why I was not getting the information required. There are others who were involved who should be able to provide the necessary information and I am liaising with them, and hope to be in a position to provide the necessary information within the next couple of weeks.

Kind regards,

Dear Sir

Further to my letter of 11 January (copy enclosed for ease of reference), are you now in a position to provide the information required?

If the information required is not available, then the Welsh Ministers will make a screening direction based on the information before them.

I would be grateful if you could acknowledge receipt of this email and enclosure.
