DIARY CASE BRIEFING

Purpose

- This is the ministerial review meeting with the Chair of SBUHB
- <Redacted>

Current position and issues to note

- <Redacted> On 12 December 2023, the maternity and neonatal services within Swansea Bay University Health Board were escalated to enhanced monitoring. <Redacted>
- The health board announced its Independent Review of maternity and neonatal services on the 12 December 2024. There has been some pushback from families in the region related to the nature of this review related to engagement, the Chair and the terms of reference. Families have on the 8 October 2024 announced their own review of available data and family experiences.
