It was noted that the enhanced monitoring meeting on the maternity and neonatal services had taken place the previous day and noted for the minutes. An update was provided on the Independent Review, the clinical reviews have commenced, the feedback on the first tranche of reviews will take place on 11 November 2024 (approx. 30 cases). All remaining letters will have been sent by the end of October (approx. 120). The self-referral process is open but there have been no referrals made as yet. Awareness raising is now underway. Engagement with Llais continues. Two reports will go to the November Board meeting, one covering the governance review and the second incorporating the work Llais have been undertaking. I would appreciate sight of these papers prior to publication.

You were confident that the Independent Review is on track and is expected to complete in May 2025.

We noted the updates on the patient feedback slides and welcomed the reopening of the home birth service from 21 October 2024
