WRITTEN QUESTION FOR ANSWER BY
THE CABINET MINISTER FOR RURAL RESILIENCE AND SUSTAINABILITY
ON 1 JUNE 2026

Paul Davies (Ceredigion Penfro) – WQ98658(e) - What steps will the Welsh Government take to reduce sewage discharges in West Wales?

Rhun ap Iorwerth:

The Welsh Government is committed to improving water quality across Wales and reducing sewage discharges through a stronger, system-wide approach. We will prioritise targeted investment in wastewater infrastructure and drainage systems, including action to address storm overflows where they cause the greatest environmental harm.
